Alliance Home Health Acquired by Addus
Addus, a publicly-traded company, acquired both locations of Alliance Home Health Care to enhance their geographic coverage of home health and hospice services in New Mexico. This acquisition follows an earlier acquisition they made in the state of Ambercare Corporation. The Braff Group originated the transaction and served as the exclusive mergers and acquisitions advisor to Alliance Home & Health Care.

The Braff Group is the leading mergers and acquisitions advisory firm specializing exclusively in health care services, including behavioral health, digital health, home health and hospice, pharmacy services, urgent care, health care staffing, home medical equipment, and ancillary health care services. Founded in 1998, The Braff Group has repeatedly been ranked among the top five health care mergers and acquisitions advisory firms.

Managing Director Mark Kulik led the deal team.
